

The number of criminal cases that appear in our Indiana County courts continues to rise. Consequently, we need a hard-working District Attorney who is committed to "rolling up his sleeves" to win the war against crime by keeping dangerous criminals off of our streets. Aggressive prosecution, not plea bargaining, is the way to keep our families safe. Let's elect a DA who understands that concept. Let's elect Tom Bianco.

"Serving as District Attorney is an awesome responsibility that requires dedication and hard work. If elected, I will be committed to bringing justice to victims of crime and their families. I promise to be a tough prosecutor who will not be intimidated and who will have the courage to make the tough decisions."
